For Immediate Release
Nora Mental Health Expands with New Branch in Missoula, Montana

Missoula, Montana – November 2024 – Nora Mental Health, a leading provider of compassionate and comprehensive mental health services, is now located in Missoula, Montana. Under the leadership of owners Dylan and Lindsay Brown, the Missoula clinic is now open and accepting new patients, offering a full spectrum of mental health services to the community.

Located at 2825 Stockyard Road, A-11, Missoula, Montana, Nora Mental Health is designed to be a welcoming space where patients can receive personalized and compassionate care. Dylan and Lindsay look forward to serving the Missoula community and helping individuals achieve mental wellness through Whole Person Care. Nora Mental Health provides a wide range of services, including client-centered therapy, medication management, telehealth options, and programs to address various mental health conditions.

Patients can book appointments by emailing montana@noramentalhealth.com.

The Browns opened the clinic to provide solutions for people who are hurting. They emphasize that wellness and wholeness are possible, and you are not alone. "We stand with you in your journey to wholeness and wellness," wrote Dylan and Lindsay. "Today is the day, don't miss another moment."

Dylan and Lindsay are excited to improve access to mental health care and promote mental wellness in their community. With a focus on accessibility and client-centered care, the Missoula clinic will offer a positive support system through a range of therapeutic services designed to improve the quality of life for its clients.

Email montana@noramentalhealth.com to book an appointment.